

Bee School 2007

Class registration for Beginning Beekeepers

Hosted by Norfolk County Beekeepers Association

Our course is designed for people who wish to gain an understanding of bee biology and beekeeping practices in order to begin the fascinating hobby of beekeeping. Those who are just curious or are as yet unsure about the beginning the hobby are also encouraged to enroll. Classes will consist of seven or eight weekly meetings (depending on progress made). Beginning at 7:00 pm and ending around 9 or 9:30. Classes will be held at the Norfolk County Agricultural School cafeteria in Walpole with some classes as lectures and others hands-on style with participation in assembling beekeeping equipment. IN addition to the above, there will be one field demonstration in April on Installing a package of bees into a new hive.

The dates for the school are tentatively: 2/6, 2/13, 2/27, 3/6, 3/20, 3/27, 4/3 and 4/10,

Tuition is $45.00 per person and $30.00 for each additional person from the same family. The tuition includes the textbook, beekeeping equipment supply catalogues, and related hand outs.

Please check our website at www.norfolkbees.org for class schedule updates and weather cancellations etc.
